

Timeout-based Delivery

Clients acknowledge message receptions to ensure that messages are received properly.

How can it be ensured that messages are only deleted from a message queue if they have been received successfully at least once?

